Rotterdam welcomes you

At 52 degrees north latitude and 4 degrees east longitude where the waters of Europe's largest rivers merge to flow into the North Sea, you'll find Rotterdam, the city with Europe's largest seaport. With approximately 600.000 inhabitants Rotterdam is the second largest city in the Netherlands. A compact yet cosmopolitan city, with a young, dynamic and international population that consists of over 170 nationalities. The city has a lot to offer its visitors: sports, culture, architecture, nightlife and shopping. Rotterdam can be comfortably reached by all modes of transport. The city offers an ample selection of excellent accommodations to its visitors.

WELCOME TO ROTTERDAM

A warm welcome to all of you who have come to the 10th edition of the Battle of the Teams. Rotterdam, the City of Sports, is very proud to host this event.

Rotterdam is every inch a sports-loving city as well. Our integrated sports policy in a contribution to health, social and economic development, integration and improving quality of life, has become an example in the Netherlands.

Rotterdam is a city with a wide-ranging experience in top class sports events. Annual events on the Rotterdam sports calendar include the ABN AMRO World Tennis Tournament, the Marathon Rotterdam and the international equestrian event CHIO. In addition, Rotterdam is regularly the host city for top national and international events that are watched by a world-wide audience of millions.

I am convinced that this event will be an exciting one for those taking part, the organisers and the public, and that it will demonstrate why Rotterdam is the City of Sports. I wish all of the competitors, coaches and visitors, the best of luck. Make it happen!

With kind regards,

Peter Blangé
Managing-Director of Rotterdam Topsport
