President's Speech

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen,

The European Shotokan Karate Championship, which we will organize for the 14th time this year, will be held in Tata, Hungary. I am very pleased to see that the activities of our World Shotokan Federation, which was established many years ago with a lot of effort, continue successfully without slowing down. We see that the number of member countries has exceeded 80 with the newly joined Countries, which shows that the trust in the World Shotokan Federation continues to increase.

I hope that our participants, who will come from different countries of Europe, will leave this competition with good memories, where they will compete individually and as a team in the kata and kumite branches of Shotokan Karate.

I wish success to all administrators, coaches, referees and athletes who will participate in the 14th European Shotokan Championship.

About Tata City, Hungary

Info Tata city:

Tata is located in the valley between the Gerecse Mountains and Vértes Mountains, some 70 km (43 mi) from Budapest, the Hungarian capital city. By virtue of its location, it is a railway and road junction. Motorway M1 (E60, E75) from Vienna to Budapest passes through the outer city limits, and the railway line Budapest–Vienna goes through the city

Tata is among those rare cities that engrave themselves in your heart straight away, whether you're young, old, man or woman. A real gem at the border of the Gerecse- and Vértes mountains. And it can easily and quickly be accessed from Budapest too.

Climate

Tata's climate is classified as oceanic climate. The annual average temperature is 10.9 °C (51.6 °F), the hottest month in July is 21.4 °C (70.5 °F), and the coldest month is 0.0 °C (32.0 °F) in January. The annual precipitation is 589.4 millimetres (23.20 in), of which July is the wettest with 69.6 millimetres (2.74 in), while February is the driest with only 30.6 millimetres (1.20 in).

History

The area has been inhabited since prehistoric times; archaeological findings date back to 50,000 BCE. Later it was a Roman settlement.

The first known mention of Tata is from 1221. Its name may come from the name of Lombard king Tato. Its castle was built by the Lackfi family and had its prime under Matthias Corvinus, who had it rebuilt in a Renaissance style.

In 1526 when the disastrous battle with the Turks happened and Louis II died in the battlefield, Count György Cseszneky was the castellan of the Castle Tata. The plundering Ottoman army ransacked the area, but Cseszneky successfully defended the castle.

During the Ottoman occupation, the castle of Tata was an important fortress. It was captured in 1543 by the Turks. During this period the castle had many different owners until it was burned down by the Habsburgs in retaliation for the Rákóczi's War of Independence.

In 1727, Count József Esterházy bought Tata and the surrounding villages. The town prospered, in 1765 it already had a secondary school.

In 1938, the village of Tóváros was annexed to Tata. So thus, the city was renamed Tatatóváros but only for a short while; one year later, it was named Tata again.

During World War II, Tata was captured by Soviet troops of the 2nd Ukrainian Front on 19 March 1945 during the course of the Vienna Offensive.

Tata was granted town status in 1954.
